Last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock a meeting was held at the residence of His Lordship Rt. Rev. SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hagenbarth, after spending the winter months in California, returned home last week. Charles H. McGurran went to Butte, Mont., last Sunday.

Mrs. J. F. Dunn has returned from southern California.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was a party given by Mrs. F. J. Westcott, who entertained the Crystal Card club in honor of Mrs. C. A. Quigley.

Mrs. J. H. Cosgriff was the hostess at a tea given Thursday afternoon at her home in East South Temple street.

A wire from Manila this week stated that Thomas Connolly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Connolly, formerly of Park City, was very ill in that city.

Rev. Father Hawelka of Austin, Tex., was in the city during the week.

SACRED HEART ACADEMY.
Those interested in astronomy and those not concerned in celestial affairs, were pleased to become acquainted with that mysterious Haley comet on its first appearance in the evening sky. Though the majority of the girls had seen it successive mornings, as it appeared above the mountains before the beautiful planet Venus rose, they declared its brilliancy to exceed in the west that which it attained in the morning.

Miss Loretta Malone, '09, accompanist of Miss Maggie Toot, Ogden's great songstress, returned Sunday morning from her tour through southern Utah and Idaho, but left again on Monday for Salt Lake and nearby towns, expecting to be gone only a few days.

On Tuesday morning the first and second academics were contestants in a spirited competition in American literature. The girls on both sides answered the questions so readily it was felt undecided as to which was the winning party. It is needless to say how the review was appreciated by those gathered to hear it.

Those in any way observant have not failed to notice the altar of the Blessed Mother during the month of May, how artistically and beautifully the flowers and candles are arranged. Through the girls making strenuous efforts to procure suitable bouquets, success crowned their endeavors.

The girls of the academy, from the smallest minium to the graduates, were delighted with the rare treat granted them on Monday evening of going out on the front lawn to watch the total eclipse of the moon, which certainly surpassed the expectations of every one.

Miss Josephine Murray and little sister, Gertrude, of Rock Springs, arrived at Sacred Heart Monday evening to spend some time with their sister, Louise. Josephine and Gertrude are both former pupils of the academy.

Mr. Frank Kennedy of Salt Lake was a welcome visitor at the academy this week. On his return Sunday to Zion he was accompanied by his sister, Miss Agnes, '10, who remained over Sunday the guest of her mother at the "Manx."

The nearness of summer is surely evinced by the great difficulty which the juniors find in avoiding the academy orchards, where the temptation to eat apples and berries is too strong for them to overcome.

Miss Anna Gamble, '08, paid one of her short visits to the academy last Monday, returning to her home in Peterson on Monday, but reassuring us that she would "come back soon."

Miss Mabel Kraus, '10, spent Sunday with her mother at Holy Cross hospital. EDNA HAMILTON, '10.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.
The officers and members have confidence that next Sunday, May 29, will be "the big day" in the history of Salt Lake council. An exceptional large class will receive the first, second and third degrees on that day. All preliminary work has been completed, and neither labor, time nor expense has been spared on the part of the members in doing everything possible to make the affair a success, and everyone is assured a royal good time. The initiation ceremonies will take place at the Knights of Pythias hall, 218 South Main street. A reception committee will be at the Knights of Pythias hall at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and the hall will remain open until 2 o'clock. All candidates should be at the hall not later than 1:30 p. m. as the initiation ceremonies will commence promptly at 2 o'clock.

Word has been received from several of the neighboring councils to the effect that a large delegation from the various councils will be on hand for the big time next Sunday.

The banquet in the Knights of Columbus hall on Sunday evening will be served by the wives, sisters and daughters of the knights, under the supervision of Mesdames Mecklenburg, Carter and Laramie.

Edward McGurran, district deputy of the Knights of Columbus, returned Tuesday from Twin Falls, Idaho, where, on Sunday last, he initiated a class of thirty-five members into the order. Members from Pocatello, Boise and Lewiston councils assisted in conferring the degrees, and many members from other states were present.

French Tact.
A great French artist had been the whole program at a morning entertainment given at a charitable institution in Paris which maintains many orphan children. Afterward she was invited to remain for breakfast. At her plate was an egg, and when she broke it, out rolled ten gold pieces. The singer turned to Abbe P., the head of the orphanage. "You do not know me quite well enough yet to know all my tastes," she said, smiling. "I adore eggs, but eat only the whites. I never touch the yolk. I must leave it to you for your poor babies."

New Hospital.
San Francisco is to have a new St. Mary's Hospital, which will ultimately cover an entire city block and will cost approximately $1,250,000. The need of this has been felt ever since the earthquake and fire of 1906 destroyed the commodious institution of the Sisters of Mercy on Rincon Hill, and the hospital was forced into smaller quarters.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY NOTES.

It was a highly cultured and discriminating audience which, on Tuesday last, honored the recital given by Miss Alice Weldon of (Riviera, Utah). Miss Weldon has attended the conservatory of the academy for three years. Prior to that time her musical education was directed by the sisters of Holy Cross in her native town. The recital opened with "Sonata-Etorea," by Macdowell. This sublime creation of America's greatest composer, expressive of many moods, but all volubly, was interpreted by the young lady in a thoroughly music-like manner, with power and earnestness. In the second movement her clear, ringing touch brought forth all the hidden depths of passion and feeling of the composer. Her playing in the fourth movement especially was remarkable for strength and brilliancy of execution and firmness of touch. "Polichinelle," by Reichmannhoff, received delicate and subtle treatment, pervaded with exquisite coloring. "Chant Poetique," "Humoresque," and "Lullaby," by Brind-brilliant and with compositions were interpreted with charming dash and abandon. The blending of piano and violin (played by Miss Margaret McDonough) imparted to the "Lullaby" a ravishing tenderness translated into ethereal beauty. Well trained technique, which was evinced especially in the singing quality of her touch, breadth of comprehension and refinement in interpretation marked the closing weeks of school music. "Ballade," Op. 29, by Carl Reinecke. Miss Weldon was assisted by the Misses C. Montgomery, H. Hicks and P. Ford, who, in a pleasing manner, rendered a vocal trio, "I Give Our Prayer," by J. Abbott; and by Miss Ollie Cooper, who recited "The Fiddle Told." Worthy of special mention is the fact that the entire program was memorized by the students for whom a brilliant future may safely be predicted.

Among the pleasant memories of the closing weeks of school music, ranked the attendance at the presentation of "Rip Van Winkle," for the privilege of which the students are indebted to Mr. L. Cosgrove, the stellar actor in the play, who, with characteristic courtesy extended the invitation.

Thursday found the students earnestly engaged in studying the weather forecasts for that was the day chosen for their annual picnic, which is always looked forward to with eager anticipation. The weather was fine, and under a cloudless sky the merry party started for Liberty Park. A number of hampered of uncertain dimensions had preceded them to regale the picnic appetite.

"Cheerfulness" was the theme Miss Berenice Seidenfaden had selected for her address in the assembly hall on Monday. Her arguments were a clear exposition of the influence which the social virtue exerts over the home, the school and society. She exhorted her hearers to look on the bright side of life, reminding them that— "Behind the clouds, the sun's still shining."

Miss Ethel Bixby brought the meeting to a close by reciting "The Second Trial," by Sarah Kellogg.

The study of Burns occupies the literary period of the third academics. Illustrative of the sense of security which the spirit of faith inspires in moments of danger, was the conduct of the pupils during the earthquake which occurred on Sunday morning. At the solemn moment after the consecration, when the rumbling noise, the rocking of the building, the swaying of the iron pillars, statues and chandeliers struck terror into the hearts of all, the pupils, panic-stricken, arose to seek safety in flight; but the calm, self-possession of the celebrant, and a gentle reminder from Sister Superior recalled to them the sacramental presence of Him "who commanded the waves and the sea," and all returned to their places, perfectly calm, but with a doubt with a sense of utter dependence on His all-powerful protection.

The event of the week was Prof. Maud M. Babcock's illustrated lecture on "The Impropriety of Modern Dress," given in the students' assembly hall on Wednesday. Her logical and interesting presentation of the subject, involving hygienic principles indispensable to the growth of the body, her denunciation of the fallacies of certain forms of style, impressed her hearers with the necessity of sacrificing notions of style to genuine artistic beauty, and familiarizing themselves with the laws and practices to be observed in order to develop and maintain the body in health and activity.

Jesuit Writer Dead.

Rev. Jas. H. Hayes, S. J., prominent for the great interest he took in the Catholic press, died recently at Chicago, the scene of his labor for the past 30 years. Among the varied duties of his priestly career he ever kept in view the power of the press for furthering the interests of the Church, and always gave it his staunchest support. Some time before he left St. Louis the St. Louis Times, a Catholic daily, was established by Mr. H. M. Chambers, a prominent Catholic of that city, and the encouragement given this venture by Father Hayes was one of its valuable assets.

It was after his transfer to Chicago, however, that his activity in this line was especially noteworthy. There he edited the "Little Bee," a monthly magazine, and the "Catholic Home," a diocesan publication, which later developed into the New World. Seeing the great fund of authoritative doctrine on the important questions of the day, contained in the letters of the Fathers, in order to bring this before the people he undertook to collate a number of valuable selections from these writings and later published them under the well known title "Chips from the Block of Peter."

He was engaged for a long while also in writing and publishing the "Catholic Penny Leaflets," another means of bringing Catholics in close touch with Catholic doctrines.

He was perhaps no less remarkable for his skill and energy in organizing and promoting Catholic societies, and his zeal in the cause of Temperance was productive of much fruit.

The most remarkable thing in the life of Father Hayes was his patience in the intense suffering he endured in his eyes during the last 20 years. He was 82 years of age.

Interesting It True.

In giving his impression of his recent trip round the world, Rt. Rev. Monsignor Hendrick, of Ovid, N. Y., gave it as his opinion that the Japanese are desirous of possessing the Philippine Islands. He went even further, saying he would like to impart it firmly upon the American mind that the Japanese are a treacherous people and knew it to be a fact that even when the American fleet was anchored in Japanese waters they were all ready to cut the wires between the United States and Philippines and seize the islands, but were restrained from so doing by their almost bankrupt condition.—New York Freeman's Journal.
